Superyacht 'QUEEN MARE'

'QUEEN MARE' is a full displacement steel yacht (481GT) and built to RINA class. With a length of 58.00m (190'3") and a beam of 10.00m (32'10").

She is a voluminous yacht.

The spacious sundeck is well laid out with several areas to relax including a large Jacuzzi/pool forward and an undercover bar and dining area. There are further outdoor areas to relax and / or dine on the upper deck and the aft deck. 'QUEEN MARE' also has a large stern garage which houses the yacht's tenders and toys. The foredeck is fitted with a very strong crane to easily lift the tenders.

The 58m Superyacht 'QUEEN MARE' has 6 staterooms (all are ensuite doubles). A very large fullwidth Master Suite is located on the main deck forward with a private entrance reception area. A great advantage is that it is not overlooked (120sqm). It has the jacuzzi bath and showers to starboard, accommodation mid ships and an office to port. At the rear of the master are dressing rooms. In the entry of the master cabin, a limited number of printed Horizontal Shells Turtle paintings from the Artist Math Moore will greet you. There is an entrance hall with chairs.

The accommodation deck has a full width VIP stateroom (40sqm) and 4 additional doubles. The bathrooms and showers are all very spacious and lined in marble. There is a Swedish Sauna on the accommodation deck level. In addition, there is a 7th staff/ Guest cabin with good size upper and lower bunk beds (the children love this area.

This cabin has the same decoration as the other cabins and is ensuite.

She has a professional crew of 12.

The interior of the yacht, designed by Alpha M. and famous architect Zeliha Degher Ltd., features American walnut, leather tiles, glass and natural stone. The vessel is decorated with artworks created by famous artists. At the entrance to the main salon you will find a beautiful Fendi table, Ralph Lauren sofa, couch and cushions. Marble coffee tables and console are products from the Italian brand Vermissen. The two gold coffee tables in front of the couches are American origin of Mitchell Gold Bob Williams branded products and they are solid brass. Lampshades and candle holders are a limited number of products manufactured by the Italian designer brand named Piero. In accessories we have chosen to use L'objet, Michael Aram and Assol designed products. Sculptor Bulent Dernirag's horse statue is used as an accessory in the saloon area. The hall in which the black stone accessories are used are raw stone from natural stone mines of the American origin brand named Mitchell Gold Bob Williams.

The dining room section has two paintings from Nurettin Akkaya's, Works of Musicians series, in the contemporary period. The dining table which seats 12 guests, is natural marble Lapis Silver specially manufactured for QUEEN MARE. Our porcelain is bone china and our silver servings are from Christofle and Ercuis.

In spacious bridge-deck saloon and bar has Ralph Lauren sofa and comfy chairs. A large 'pop-up' TV is situated here for the guest to enjoy movies or TV programs.

British Photographer Ben Wood's series of photographs printed on solid wood framed canon paper with the theme of classic yacht gives a real comfy cosy feel. In good weather the large sliding doors are left open which leads out onto the large aft deck. There is a dining table for 12 guests and sofas.

The sun deck is spectacular complete with well-equipped central bar, charming lighting, tables and plenty comfy chairs. A large sofa aft. Forward is a lovely open area for sunbathing and the jacuzzi. Sun canopies are available for shade from the summer sun. We prefer the British brand Gloucester for the outdoor seating group, electrostatic painted frame on an aluminium construction, and the chairs are from Dedon which, well known quality German brand.
